A Proclamation.

The custom which set apart the thirtieth day of May in each year for special commemoration of the services and sacrifices of the soldiers and sailors to whose unequalled valor and abiding fidelity we are indebted for the preservation of our government and the unity of our nation, has received official recognition in Wisconsin, and that day has been added to the list of legal holidays, and when it falls on Sunday, the succeeding Monday is a legal holiday.

In reference to this provision of law, and in order to secure the cooperation of all classes of citizens in the memorial services appropriate to the occasion, the orders heretofore issued from the National and Department Headquarters of the Grand Army of the Republic, designating Saturday, May 20th, as the Memorial Day for the current year, have been modified, and the members of that organization advised to observe the succeeding Monday.

Therefore, I, WILLIAM E. SMITH, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do recommend that the patriotic men, women and children in this State unite to keep and observe the day.

Monday, the 31st Day of May, instant, as a memorial holiday in fact.

We owe it to ourselves, to our country, to the past, and, above all, to the memory of the posterity, to strew with the choicest of spring flowers the grave of every Union soldier in Wisconsin, and thereby bear public testimony that the names and fame of our dead heroes have not faded from our remembrance, but endure and shall endure throughout all coming years, even as the flowers appear and reappear in never-ending succession.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done [L.S.] at the Capitol, in the city of Madison, thirtieth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty. WILLIAM E. SMITH.

By the Governor:
HANS B. WARREN, Secretary of State.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe has an orange grove in Florida which yielded $3,000 to the acre in 1879.

The Republicans should see to it that no mistakes in the National Convention will give the Democrats a boom.

Judge Davis has written a letter on the Presidential question. It is a very gracious bid for the Democratic nomination.

Ignatius Donnelly has asked Congress to give him $4,300 for trying to steal Washburn's seat. Donnelly is bound to rob somebody. If he can't cheat Minnesota he proposes to try and rob the general government.

The Rev. Samuel Fallows, of Chicago, formerly Superintendent of Public Instruction of this State, will deliver the memorial address at Milwaukee, on the 31st. Bishop Fallows is an accomplished orator, and his old comrades in Wisconsin will be glad to hear him.

Senator Gordon knew what he was about when he resigned his seat in the Senate.
His resignation has few parallels in history, but having twenty years' experience in public life, he was satisfied, and therefore he accepted a position in private life paying $15,000 a year, which is $10,000 better than a seat in the United States Senate.

One week before his death Zach Chandler wrote a letter to a friend in Arizona in which he said, "I am under the impression that Grant's chances are better than those of any person; but unless he is nominated without a contest, he will be out of the field." Mr. Chandler was considered a good political prophet, and we will soon see whether his predictions will be verified.

Governor Smith and wife gave a reception to the members of the Presbyterian General Assembly at the Capitol on Saturday evening. It is counted the most brilliant gathering ever seen in Madison.
The halls of the rotunda of the Capitol were richly carpeted, and a beautiful fountain played in the center of the rotunda, and surrounding the fountain were many rare and elegant flowers and hot house plants. Beside all this, the Capitol was brilliantly illuminated from the dome to the basement.

The June number of the North American Review contains some very interesting and valuable articles. Among them are "Divorces in New England," by Dr.
Nathan Allen; "McClellan's Last Service to the Republic," by George Ticknor Curtis (a strong defense of McClellan); "Has the Southern Pulse Failed?" by Rev. Dr. F. A.
Shoup; "Caste at West Point," by P. S.
Michie, Professor of Philosophy at West Point; and "Some Interesting Publications," by M. W. Hazeltine. This number closes the 130th volume and 65th year of the Review. During the last few years this magazine has made a most remarkable advance in popular favor. Many of its numbers have passed through several editions, and its permanent circulation has increased more than sixfold.

THE ORGANIZATION OF THE NATIONAL CONVENTION.

There will be considerable interest taken in the organization of the National Republican Convention, for the reason that while General Grant has more votes than any other candidate, he has not a majority of the States in his favor. So far he has only 14 States and the District of Columbia, while the States that are opposed to the third term—not to Grant, personally—number 28. This fact will make the organization of the National Convention of more than common interest. There will be contested delegations from Illinois and Arkansas, and the anti-third term men from Texas, Pennsylvania, and New York will strive to have the unit rule broken.
The Committee on Credentials, like those on Rules and Permanent Organization,

RAILWAY HORROR.

Wreck of a California Excursion Train—The Number of Killed and Wounded.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—A Santa Cruz dispatch says: "A local train on the South Pacific Coast Railroad, which run to-day between here and Big Trees with passengers to the Independent rifle picnic at that place met with a terrific accident at 3.30.
Three open cars, with high railings over the sides and the ends with seats, and loaded with about 125 persons, left this place for that city. The train was pulled by No 3 engine, one Elliott being the engineer. On the way down all went well till No 7 tunnel was passed, said tunnel being located just above and overlooking the powder works. As the cars passed through the tunnel the speed of the engine was increased, it being down grade. Just as the curve in the road was reached the first car jumped the track to the left and the second to the right, the third car remaining on the track.

People in the first two cars were thrown in a heap inside toward the bank in a confused mass, the cars passing over those who were across the track. Those on the third car were uninjured, merely being knocked off their feet.

Those not hurt immediately set to work to assist the wounded and look after the dying and dead, and word was immediately sent to Felton and this place for assistance, which was promptly rendered.

A gloom of sadness to-night is cast over our city. Every hotel is being turned into a hospital to receive the wounded, which will number upwards of forty.

Already thirteen are reported dead, and others will die before morning.

A number of San Francisco people were on the train at the time of the accident.

It will be impossible to give a full list of the wounded to-night, as they are being cared for by all parties, and are scattered in various parts of the town.

Some of the dead have not been identified.

Physicians are heroically working to relieve the sufferings of the wounded, assisted by the Sisters of Charity.

No service is being held at the churches on account of the disaster.

THE ELECTORAL COUNT.

Senator Morgan's Bill for the Counting of the Electoral Vote.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Most of yesterday was spent by the Senate in consideration of Mr. Morgan's electoral count joint rule. Mr. Conkling opposed it on the ground that it was merely an ephemeral measure, that was intended to give the Democrats a chance to count in the next President, and for no other purpose. He assured them that they were needlessly worrying themselves, for the people would elect the next President, and no matter what form of count would be adopted, they would not see anything done to overthrow their will as expressed at the election. If such was a good rule, why not make it a law requiring the President's approval, and adopt it for good. Mr. Morgan used up the day in an attempt to show that the rule was substantially the same as the one strongly advocated by O. P. Morton, and perfectly fair—that is that both houses of Congress should concur in throwing out disputed returns from any State. Mr. Conkling retorted that both houses being Democratic when the next count must be made, it would not be very difficult to procure concurrence in throwing out returns enough from Republican States. Probably a vote will not be reached to-morrow, and in the meantime the Kellogg matter will wait.

ADJOURNMENT.

Difference of Opinion Relating to the Adjournment of Congress.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Chairman of the Senate Appropriation Committee says the Senate will pass the resolution for final adjournment if the House will send over all the remaining appropriation bills by next Thursday, and some members of the House Appropriation Committee think this can easily be done. The prevailing opinion among members of the House appears to be that it will not be possible to get through before the middle of June.

The Republicans threaten that if they are kept here until after the Chicago convention they will detain Congress until after the Cincinnati convention.

GENERAL GRANT.

GALENA, Ill., May 23.—The Galena Gazette, whose editor is a personal friend of General Grant, and knows whereof he speaks, will publish the following to-morrow:

"An item has been going the rounds of the press asserting that George W. Childs, of the Philadelphia Ledger, has stated that General Grant would order his name withdrawn from the contest at the National Convention in Chicago. Neither George W. Childs nor any one else has authority for making such an assertion. Gen.
Grant's name has never gone before the public as a candidate for the Presidency by any word or act of his own, and he most certainly will not order his name withdrawn. A very large class of American people have chosen to make him their candidate, and if the Republican National Convention at Chicago sees fit to tender him the nomination, he will not decline it.
This we know to be a fact, and we publish it because it is well that the Republicans of the country should cease to hold the matter in doubt."

DONNELLY'S BILL.

He Asks the Government to Pay Him $4,300 for Trying to Steal Mr.
Washburn's Seat—Mr. Finley's Share.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—It is understood that Ignatius Donnelly has presented to the House Committee on Elections his bill for services rendered to the Democracy by contesting the seat of Mr. Washburn.

The amount of this bill is about $4,300.
Some of the items appear to be suggestive.
For example, it is said that there is a charge of $1,000 for cash paid to Messrs.
Johnson & Poe for professional services before the special committee appointed to investigate and ascertain who wrote the anonymous letter to Chairman Springer.

Why Donnelly should employ counsel to protect himself in this investigation, or if he has done so, why the United States should be called upon to pay such counsel, it will puzzle most people to imagine.
It really looks like an ingenious dodge of Donnelly to compel the Government to pay counsel fees to defend the mysterious Colonel Finley, who appears in the position of a defendant in the investigation mentioned. But it appears that the name of Colonel Finley himself appears in the bill presented by Donnelly, appended to a receipt for $500 for "professional services" in the contested election case of Donnelly against Washburn.

Several members of the House have, it is reported, expressed a desire that Colonel Finley should present an itemized account.
He never appeared before the Elections Committee in the capacity of counsel for Donnelly, and the members of that committee did not suspect that he was Donnelly's counsel until he swore to the fact recently. The curiosity to see his account itemized, therefore, springs from a desire to know how much Colonel Finley charged for writing the "bulldozing" letter to Mr.
Springer, and how much for laying the "trap" before our friends in New York City through Ald. Timony, ex-Lieut.
Governor Dorsheimer, and ex-Mayor Wickham.

Col. Finley swears that he did not write the anonymous letter, and so, of course, no charge on that account will appear in his itemized bill.

Curiosity in regard to what Colonel Finley really did to earn that $500 is the most pardonable for the reason that it is as large an amount as Donnelly agreed to pay Messrs. Julian and Meloy, who prepared elaborate printed briefs and advocated his cause of ally before the Election Committee.

It is understood that Donnelly's bill contains an item of over $700 for "board and sundries" for himself and family from last December up to the end of this month.

MURDER.

An Old Man from Wisconsin Arrested for Murdering His Son.

BUFFALO, N. Y. May 23.—Early yesterday an aged German was arrested in this city on the terrible charge of murdering his son at Round Lake, Wisconsin. The capture was effected by Policeman Stone, on duty at the depot, at the request of the conductor of the train in which the accused came to this city. The conductor had received a telegram from Sheriff Frank Dillis of Ozaukee County, in which Round Lake is located, giving a description of the missing criminal and announcing that the fugitive was traveling to the East. The prisoner gave his name as Peter Zimmer, but the telegram said it was John Conrad. He finally acknowledged the fact, and said that Zimmer was the name of his neighbor. Conrad was taken to the police station, when he was interviewed by Superintendent of Police.
He said he was 80 years old, and was, he supposed, accused of killing his son 21 years old, but he denied having done so. His son had been an invalid for some time, and had been hunched back from his birth.
Some time ago he fell out of bed and the prisoner picked him up and put him back.
Then he fell out again afterwards and died afterwards. The old man emphatically denied ever having used any violence toward the deceased. Conrad is a very rough-looking specimen, blind in one eye, and almost stiff from rheumatism. He said that he was on his way to New York, where he was going to marry a young woman 70 years old, who was coming from the old country to meet him. He was locked up to await the arrival of Wisconsin officers.

REMARKABLE.

Boston, May 23.—The three Quakers arriving here within the past twenty-four hours brought 3,200 emigrants, most of whom have already started West. The Warren steamer also brought a large number to-day. The Parthia had an extraordinary experience for a Quaker. She lost a female overboard,—the first passenger killed in the history of the company.
She spent a day dodging icebergs, came into collision with a vessel off the banks during a fog, had a birth on the passage, and a case of small-pox. The last named episode caused her detention and fumigation at quarantine and compulsory vaccination of the passengers and crew, nearly 1,000 persons. Four physicians performed the operation in five hours.

THE NOMINATION.

Speculations Relating to the First Ballot at Chicago.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Mr. W. E. Chandler this evening sent the following dispatch to J. S. Clarkson, editor of the Iowa State Register:

The best and most reliable estimate that can be made this evening gives on the first ballot at Chicago: Blaine, 305; Grant, 289; Sherman, 106; Edmunds, 35; Washburne, 13; Windom, 10; or 330 for Grant to 467 for all others. This estimate is based upon fifteen votes for Blaine from New York and eighteen from Pennsylvania, but none from Ohio or Illinois. Of the twenty contesting delegates from Illinois, elected by the strongest Republican Congressional district, fourteen are for Blaine and six for Washburne. I have little doubt the result will verify the above estimate, and that Mr. Blaine will be nominated on the second ballot.

ANOTHER ESTIMATE.

NEW YORK, May 23.—The Times will print to-morrow an estimate of the standing of 732 of the 756 National delegates, giving Grant 364; Blaine, 209; Sherman, 81; Edmunds, 37; Washburne, 4; Windom, 10; and classing 27 doubtful. In New York Blaine is allowed 6 and Sherman 2 doubtful. Pennsylvania is put solid for Grant. Wisconsin is given 13 doubtful votes, and Indiana 4. Grant is credited with no delegates from Indiana. The table does not include Louisiana or Colo-radox. The Times concludes that as Grant will get half the 27 doubtful votes he is certain of at least 333 votes on the first ballot at Chicago.

SAD CASE.

KILBOURN CITY, May 23.—The startling news of the sudden death of H. H. Drinker was sad intelligence to his many friends of this place. A. J. Turner, of Portage, came up yesterday and Mr. Drinker, in company with him, J. Bowman and C. A. Noyes started out for a trouting expedition.
About 4 p. m. as they were fishing along the brook, Mr. Turner noticed a fish pole among some bushes and on going towards it found a man lying prostrate, but did not even then suppose it was Mr. Drinker, as he had seen him fishing but a few moments before. On examination he was horror-stricken at finding the hale and hearty man who was so jovial just before, dead. Mr. Drinker, it seems, was in the region of a different times with him in the trouble of the heart, and it is supposed that heart disease was the cause of his sudden death. Mr. Drinker is the senior member of the firm of Drinker Bros. Mr. Drinker has been engaged in the lumber business, and has a large circle of relatives and acquaintances who mourn his loss. The funeral services are to be on Sunday.

PUSHING AHEAD.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The Democratic situation does not attract so much interest even among Democrats as the Chicago fight. It is not denied by the long-heeded Democrats that Tilden is making a good deal of headway and the fear is uppermost in the minds of many that he is to be the source of very serious trouble at Cincinnati. Democratic members of Congress from New Jersey unite in saying that Tilden has secured nearly the whole of the New Jersey delegates.

INCENDIARIES.

MILWAUKEE, May 23.—There has been a general feeling of uneasiness in this community to-day over the repeated attempts to burn buildings. One arrest has been made thus far, but the police have an eye upon several other suspicious characters, mostly strangers in the city, who may be taken up at any moment. So far the damage has been insignificant, as the fires are generally started in hallways, easy of access to the Fire Department.

INGERSOLL HISSED.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Colonel Ingersoll lectured to-night at Chickering hall to a crowded house on "The Gods." He was hissed loudly at his blasphemous relation of bible stories, which were too strongly put even for this audience. Turning to the hisses, Ingersoll said, "You leave me to settle with God. I'd a great deal rather settle with Him than with any agent of His I ever saw."

MILFORD, Conn., July 25 1879.
Messrs. MORGAN & ALLEN, 59 John St., New York City.
Gentlemen—Please send by express, one dozen "Constitution Water." The article is selling well. Two young ladies of our town, who have suffered much from these complaints which nearly all females are more or less subject to, have been entirely cured by it. Their names will be given to any lady wishing to make inquiries of them in person.

JAMES T. HIGBY, Druggist.

A Man of Family.
In a suburban cemetery of Warsaw were interred, a few weeks ago, the remains of a venerable Pole, whose claim to be the oldest inhabitant of that city has been undisputed for several years previous to his demise. This patriot had completed his 118th year when he was summoned to his fathers; and, as during his abnormally protracted existence he had suffered no family bereavements, except that which robbed him of his wife, eighty-five years ago, his body was followed to the grave by a body of mourning descendants as, at least with respect to its numbers, has probably never before attended the obsequies of a defunct Christian. No fewer than 225 of his children, and children's children, even unto the fourth generation, streamed into the churchyard to bid a last adieu to their progenitor. The death of a person who had many grandchildren when the battle of Waterloo was fought, and whose early personal memories included such historical figures as Maria Theresa and Frederick the Great, is a noteworthy circumstance.

ARE PLENTIFUL.

The "Times," Hartford, Conn., says:
"While ice will be scarce, the life sustaining, health-giving, disease-destroyer, Warner's Safe Kidney and Liver Cure, and other of Warner's Safe Remedies, are, and will be plentiful; the use of such is putting new life in the old and young."

A New Advertisement for Republican Conventions.
From the Albany Evening Journal.
The question of different mode of constituting National Republican Conventions is sure to come up for consideration at Chicago. Even if the State Convention of New Hampshire had not already struck ed its delegates as to the propriety of a change in the existing basis of representation, the subject would come into notice from the fact that the current Democratic States—through their delegates—are certain to have an undue influence in making the nomination.

The injustice of the large proportion of votes from the Southern States we have already noticed more than once. It is proposed to disfranchise any State either North or South because it has a hopeless Democratic majority. On the contrary, the Republican vote in every State —however small it may be—should be encouraged by a prompt recognition in all the councils of the Republican party. But it is evident that a much fairer ratio of representation may be made than the present one. The suggestion of the Republicans of New Hampshire is that the delegates to future Republican conventions shall be determined by the actual Republican votes therein at the last preceding state or national election.

Acting on this suggestion, we have prepared the following table showing: First, the number of delegates which each State will send to Chicago; second, the number of Republican voters represented by each delegate from the various States; third, the proposed number for each State if the basis of representation were to be the number of Republican votes cast. The estimates are made on the vote for President in 1876, with the exception of Colorado, whose Legislature appointed the electors. One of the latter State elections is substituted for the national election in the case of that State:

States.	Delegates to Chicago.	Repres- ented.	Proposed Dele- gates.
Alabama	12	3,222	12
Arkansas	12	6,605	12
California	12	8,349	12
Colorado	12	4,919	12
Connecticut	12	2,239	12
Delaware	12	2,239	12
Florida	12	2,239	12
Georgia	12	2,239	12
Illinois	12	6,624	12
Indiana	12	4,919	12
Iowa	12	7,738	12
Kansas	12	7,738	12
Kentucky	12	7,738	12
Louisiana	12	4,919	12
Maine	12	4,919	12
Maryland	12	4,919	12
Massachusetts	12	5,770	12
Michigan	12	7,738	12
Minnesota	12	7,738	12
Mississippi	12	3,222	12
Missouri	12	4,919	12
Nebraska	12	6,624	12
Nevada	12	1,739	12
New Hampshire	12	4,919	12
New Jersey	12	5,770	12
New York	12	10,985	12
North Carolina	12	4,919	12
Ohio	12	7,738	12
Oregon	12	1,739	12
Pennsylvania	12	10,985	12
Rhode Island	12	1,739	12
South Carolina	12	4,919	12
Tennessee	12	2,239	12
Texas	12	4,919	12
Vermont	12	1,739	12
West Virginia	12	4,919	12
Wisconsin	12	6,624	12

It will be seen from the above that some of the delegates represent less than 2,000 Republican voters, while others represent nearly 3,000—the average being about 5,400. This is obtained by dividing the aggregate Republican vote of 1876—a little over 4,000,000—by 738, the number of delegates to Chicago for the States, and exclusive of the Territories which cast no electoral votes.

Another fact will also be noticed: the Southern States—which are solidly Republican—benefit most largely by the present arrangement. South Carolina is the only one whose representation is above the average of 5,400. All the rest fall short of that figure, while fourteen Northern States, which are sure to give Republican majorities, exceed the average by from 200 to 2,500. These fourteen States are: California, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.

Now if the average should stand at 5,400, the number of delegates to which each State would be entitled is shown by the last column in the above table. The difference between the number of delegates that some of the States now have and the number they are really entitled to is in some instances quite remarkable. Alabama loses seven; Arkansas, five; Delaware, four—and so on. New York gains twenty; Ohio, twenty-three; Pen-sylvania, twelve; and others in proportion.
The objection may be made very naturally that it would be unfair to give the States having extraordinary Republican votes a representation exactly in proportion to such votes because their influence would be too great. In other words, their large majorities would act in a dictatorial manner over the smaller majorities, while in no case could they do more than to give their respective Electoral votes to the Republican candidate. This could be easily remedied by allowing no State to have any delegates in excess of its proportion of the whole Electoral vote, and giving to all States—no matter how small their Republican vote may be—their ratio according to the above table.

AUNTIE MOTT'S STORY.

Kidnapped While An Infant by a Sailor, and Left on a Barren Island.

From the New York Sun.
In 1807 John Harvey lived in Cortlandt street, where many wealthy residents then lived. His wife, Henrietta, sister to Peter Harvey, a widely known Boston banker, reprimanded a Swedish sailor who boarded near her house, and the man rowed away. On the next day Henrietta, her three year old child, disappeared, and the sailor was not seen in the neighborhood.
He had taken the child away in a boat, and left her on the marsh on Barren Island, with a piece of pork in on hand and a biscuit in the other. Nicholas Dooley, who occupied the only house on the island at that time, discovered and adopted her, giving her the name of Julia Ann. At the age of 15 she married Henry Mott, a young resident of Rockaway, and shortly afterward Mrs.
Rachel Cowles, who visited the house on a boating excursion, was struck with the young bride's great resemblance to Mrs. Harvey, whom she knew. Knowing of Mrs. Harvey's loss, she informed her on returning to the city of her discovery, and that lady identified her daughter by the mark of a nail-moon on one of her knees and a hole in one ear.

Mrs. Mott, says the South Side Observer, is still living with her husband in Westville, N. Y., where she is familiarly known as Auntie Mott. They had thirteen children, but no sons, and their grandchildren and great grandchildren are very numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Dooley are descendants of the same family. Mrs. Mott remembers Gibbs, the pirate, who is said to have buried his stolen gains on Barren Island. He passed the night at Mr. Dooley's house before he and Wansley, his associate were captured on Plum Point. He subsequently confessed his intention to murder the family but did not carry it out, remaining all night with a loaded gun by his side.

LEWIS' LYE
98 PER CENT PURE.
(Patented.)
FINELY POWDERED.
HIGHLY PERFUMED.
The strongest and purest Lye made. Will make 12 pounds of the best Perfumed Hard Soap in 20 minutes without boiling.
The best water-softerner made.
The best disinfectant.
The following are some of the advantages obtained by using Lewis' 98 Per Cent. Powdered Lye:
First. It is packed in iron cans with a self-sealing rubber stopper, and is leaving the contents exposed, thereby saving the trouble, expense, and danger from flying particles, as
with other Lyes.
Second. It is a fine white powder, being sold in the cans, must be broken in a hammer to get the Lye out.
Third. A teaspoonful or more can be used, as in water-softerner, scrubbing, etc., and the residue left on the can,
and thereby save the balance of contents.
With other Lyes it must be dissolved in water and used in a short time, or the strength is gone.
Fourth. Absolutely pure. Free
from all adulterations.
Fifth. The best Soap can be made in from ten to twenty minutes with this Lye.
Sixth. No failure in its use in making Soap with this Lye when the simple directions given are followed.
Seventh. One can of this Powdered Lye is equal to twenty pounds of Sal Soda or Washing Soda.
Eighth. One can of this Lye will saponify one hundred pounds of grease, tallow, or lard, or any Oil, Potash, or Soapstone.
Ninth. This Lye is 50 per cent stronger than any other Lye or Potash.
Tenth. One Lye will saponify will soften a tub of the hardest water.
Eleventh. One teaspoonful will thoroughly cleanse Sinks, Pipes, or Closets, and is invaluable for killing Roaches, Mice, Rats, etc.
This best article for use in the home.

THE READY FAMILY SOAP MAKER:
(Patented.)
FINELY POWDERED.
HIGHLY PERFUMED.

The strongest and purest Lye made. Will make 12 pounds of the best Perfumed Hard Soap
in 20 minutes without boiling.
The best water-softerner made.
The best disinfectant.
The following are some of the advantages obtained by using Lewis' 98 Per Cent. Powdered Lye:

a self-sealing rubber stopper, and is
leaving the contents exposed, there-
by saving the trouble, expense, and
danger from flying particles, as
with other Lyes.
Second. It is a fine white powder, being sold in the cans, must be
broken in a hammer to get the Lye out.

Third. A teaspoonful or more can be
used, as in water-softerner, scrubbing,
etc., and the residue left on the can,
and thereby save the balance of contents.
With other Lyes it must be dissolved
in water and used in a short time, or the
strength is gone.

Fourth. Absolutely pure. Free
from all adulterations.
Fifth. The best Soap can be made in from ten to twenty minutes with this Lye.
Sixth. No failure in its use in making Soap
with this Lye when the simple directions given
are followed.

Seventh. One can of this Powdered Lye is equal to twenty pounds of Sal Soda or Washing Soda.
Eighth. One can of this Lye will saponify one hundred pounds of grease, tallow, or lard, or
any Oil, Potash, or Soapstone.
Ninth. This Lye is 50 per cent stronger than any other Lye or Potash.
Tenth. One Lye will saponify will soften a
tub of the hardest water.

Eleventh. One teaspoonful will thoroughly
cleanse Sinks, Pipes, or Closets, and is
invaluable for killing Roaches, Mice, Rats, etc.
This best article for use in the home.

—Governor Smith and wife, and Secretary of State Warner, expect to visit the Institution for the Blind next Wednesday.
—The Tribune's announcement that Barrett is to play in Janesville next Friday night, is probably a little "off color."

—Decorations day doings are being pushed to a completion so that one week from to-day there may be a successful observance of the time honored custom.

—Bear in mind the meeting of the Sons of Temperance in their hall in Lappin's block this evening at 7:45 o'clock; songs, duets, recitations, a good time generally.
—Rev. Dr. Huntley is to preach in Court Street church next Sunday morning. In the evening of that day he will preach in Beloit. Bring in the extra benches and chairs.

—Judge Conger has appointed Hon. John R. Bennett, Pliny Norcross and A. Hyatt Smith as a committee to examine Cole C. McLean and Tom J. Emmons for admission to the bar.

—Beloit is trying to work up a mineral spring boom. It can't be that they have read what Peck has to say about the spring discovered in the basement of the Evening Wisconsin building.

—Charles Filbinger, the cripple who took a tumble, after taking too many tumblers, was to-day sentenced to five days in jail. He claims Elgin as his home, and Clinton as his working place.

—Rev. J. W. Sanderson spent Sunday in the city, and greeted old friends. He hurried back to Madison to be at his post to-day as one of the Clerks of the Presbyterian Assembly, now in session there.

—Another crowd took an early breakfast this morning and started away to cast their lines in pleasant places. Rev. Mr. MacLean, Dr. McCauley, Wall King, Fred Prentice and Mr. Terry formed the party.

—Sew on the buttons, check off a seat, and see Dillon at the Opera house to-night in "Bumps." The Blaisdell Comedy Company is a good one, and with Dillon to lead off there will be plenty of fun and frolic.

—Everett W. Fish is to lecture at Cannon's hall, Wednesday evening, June 2, on "The Pyramids of Egypt." He has recently written a scientific work on that subject and is doubtless able to give an interesting lecture.

—The Presbyterian Sunday school is making preparations for celebrating next Sunday, it being the centennial of the Sunday school work, and the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Presbyterian Sunday school work.

—Patrick Peters got a leg badly smashed in Merrill & Houston's iron works in Beloit last Saturday. He tumbled into a pit filled with old iron, and a truck-load of iron tumbled on top of him. He must have had an iron constitution to get out of it as well as he did.

—The city offices are being cleared out and cleaned up. The City Treasurer's and City Clerk's rooms are being repainted, and for a few days those officials will occupy the Common Council chamber. The Committee are also devising ways and means for getting rid of the odor from the stable below.

—A Janesville man has a large bull dog which seems to know the value of temperance. Whenever his master starts to go into a saloon, the dog begins pulling and tugging at his heels, and doing his best to keep him away from the tempter. We have seen men who ought to get one such dog for each leg.

—The new law provides that the Street Commissioner should be nominated and confirmed in May. Now if there is no Commissioner decided upon at next Monday's meeting of the Council, when, oh, when can the bloody chasm be bridged over? With no Commissioner and the rights taken away from the junior aldermen, the thing will look mixed. The Mayor has given the Council the names of some good men to pick from, but some of the Aldermen seem determined to have their own way, and want the privilege of nominating and confirming both. Mayor Cobb has considerable strength left, however, in his spinal column.

—Complaints are made that plants are being shipped from private lots at the cemetery, that urns are being despoiled of their vases, and other like despicable depredations committed. Of course the Association cannot keep men watching every part of the grounds, and it does seem that in a civilized community the resting places of the dead would be safe from such pilfering. What satisfaction a person can find in growing plants which have thus been stolen we cannot imagine. We suppose that no ordinary talk can reach such sordid souls, but if any of those plant-pilferers can be detected, we promise to give them an extensive advertising, free of charge, and we will gladly print their names in full faced letters.

Newly furnished, everything the best, Astor House, New York.

DESPAIR AND DEATH.

A Former Janesville Man Commits Suicide in Lincoln Park, Chicago.

Many of the older residents of this city will remember Ambrose Arms, a millwright, who formerly lived in this city. Yesterday morning his body was found in Lincoln park, where he had evidently committed suicide. The details of the affair we take from the Chicago Tribune:

At an early hour yesterday morning Julius Hartung, of the Lincoln Park police, found the dead body of a man lying upon one of the rustic seats. In the right hand tightly clasped, was a revolver, apparently new, of 32 calibre, from which one cartridge had been fired. In the right temple was a bullet hole. It was plainly a case of suicide, and, as the body was quite cold, it is supposed the deed was committed the previous evening. The body was taken to the Larabee Street station, where from letters found upon the person it was ascertained that the deceased was Ambrose Arms, a boarder in the house of Mr. Hoffman, No. 354 Indiana street. Thither the body was taken. In the afternoon the Coroner held an inquest and the jury returned a verdict of death by suicide. One of the jurors was an old army comrade of Gen. Mason, whom he met while on his way to the house, and by whom he was induced to serve on the jury. This was Dr. Lane. After the inquest had been held, and the Doctor had gone about his business, he recollected that the deceased was an old acquaintance who lived in Janesville, Wisconsin, and, returning, he gave Coroner Mann some addresses, which will undoubtedly lead him in netting friends and relatives. In a memorandum book belonging to the deceased were the following addresses: "Sister Wells and son, No. 219 Randolph street;" "Albert Wells, Chicago Times office;" "Mrs. Theodore Kendall, Janesville;" and some other minor notes. Later in the day, when Mr. Wells was found, he said that the deceased was his uncle, Ambrose Arms—that is, he was a brother of his, Wells, mother, who is now living at Beloit, Wis. He knew that his uncle had been in this city for some time, but had not seen him for nearly a year. Mr. Arms was about 50 years of age, and married a blind young woman out of some institute in Wisconsin. She is now supposed to be dead. Mr. Hoffman has positive proof that penury was the cause of suicide. Mr. Arms had only two cents in change, owed for his board, and last Monday lost a situation in Meyer's planing mill on the North Pier. He was very low spirited during the week, and it was generally known that he had been subject to fits of mental aberration.

A GOOD-BY SOCIAL.

There was a pleasant gathering of friends Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Chase, it being by invitation of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Samuels. The occasion was the expected departure this week of Mrs. George Strout, who goes to Kansas city to join her husband, who is engaged in a railroad office there. About forty friends thus gathered and had a most delightful evening. Refreshments were served in a most tempting and bountiful manner, cards and games were provided, social chatting indulged in, and there was nothing lacking to make the hours pass most pleasantly. Those who participated pronounced the affair one of the most enjoyable of the kind given in months.

DAMON AND PYTHIAS.

One week from to-night Homer D. Cope is to appear at the Opera house, under the auspices of the Knights of Pythias, and will give his rendition of the beautiful and touching play of "Damon and Pythias," presenting the entire five acts from memory, and impersonating faithfully each of the fourteen characters. The Chicago Tribune thus says of him:

One of the most novel and ambitious, and withal one of the most successful programmes ever presented in Chicago, was the recital of "Damon and Pythias" by the dramatic reader, Homer D. Cope, on Friday night.

That anyone can succeed in the rendition of a play whose characters are so widely different, is a matter of surprise, yet the complete success attained by Mr. Cope cannot be questioned. It was a precious and delightful audience which greeted Mr. Cope on this his first appearance in Chicago.

TROUBLING THE TELEPHONE.

There is some prospect of a more definite settlement of the rights of telephone wires to run through the city. Elbert Cone has been complained of for interfering with them, while moving a building from the Fourth ward to the "flat-iron" in the Firstward. The chimney of the moving house caught the wire leading to Hogueboom & Atwood's office, and pulled it down, also the wires leading to the Northwestern and Milwaukee & St. Paul depots. It is said that Cone refused to take the trouble to get up on the roof and throw the wire over the chimney, and would not wait for anyone else to do it. On these grounds complaint was entered against him by Charles Atwood, and the case came up before Justice Nolan this morning. J. W. Bates appearing for the plaintiff and attorney Fethers for the defendant. The case stands adjourned until next Thursday morning.

THE JUVENILES.

Saturday evening Haverly's Juvenile Pinafore Company appeared at the Opera house before a very small audience. The night was showery, and that proved one reason why the benches were bare, and still a stronger reason was that "Pinafore" had been given here three times before, and the amusement lovers seem to feel that with this it was three times and out. The company of little folk gave a charming entertainment, though its novelty had somewhat worn off by the company's previous visit to the city. They handled themselves well, and did some excellent work. Some of the leading characters were the same as when they were here before, but in the minor parts, and in the choruses there have been many changes. The reorganization has not improved the company, but rather weakened it, so that the entertainment did not prove as enjoyable as before, and many of those who attended were disappointed. It is not one of those entertainments which wear very well, and there was little of that enthusiasm which was manifested on the first appearance of the company here. It is to be hoped that the next time the little folks come this way it will be with something new, and in such a case they will find a more hearty welcome.

A SLIGHT BLAZE.

The cry of "fire" was sounded on Main street Saturday night about 12 o'clock and caused a little flurry among the late stragglers along the street. It appears that a kerosene light had been left burning in the Cooperative store, formerly Fisher's grocery store. Just above where this lamp stood hung Fisher's old sign, and the heat from the lamp set this into a blaze. Fortunately there was a "scrubbing-out" going on at Morse's restaurant, and those at work there discovered the smoke and gave the alarm. Entrance was gained to the store and the cause of the commotion was speedily caused to subside without the need of calling on the fire department. Had the fire not been discovered as it was, and the alarm given, there would have been a big blaze without doubt.

THE RIGHTS OF WOMEN.

A goodly number of women met Saturday afternoon in All Souls church in response to the call published for a meeting to be held to take action concerning the coming Woman's Suffrage Convention in Milwaukee, June 4th and 5th. Mrs. S. C. Guernsey was chosen chairman, and Miss R. Hatherell Secretary. It was decided to defer completing any organization until after the Milwaukee Convention. Miss Angie King, Mrs. C. E. Wilson, and Mrs. S. C. Guernsey were elected delegates to the Convention, and adjournment was taken until June 12, at 4 o'clock p. m., at All Souls church.

The indications to-day are, for the upper lake region, falling followed by stationary or rising barometer, stationary or rising, followed by lower temperature, cloudy weather with rain, southerly, veering to south or west winds.

CHARGED WITH BURGLARY.

One week ago yesterday the residence of Mr. Wm. Gates, of the town of Turtle, was burglarized, while the family were at church. A suit of clothes and some other valuables were taken. Friday last Marshal North, of Beloit, who was working on the case, discovered a young man named Lewis Bradley, wearing a suit of clothes, which to all appearances were the ones stolen. He accordingly arrested him, and in default of the required $500 bail, Bradley was committed to jail to await the result of the examination which is to be held next Wednesday. Bradley is a young man, aged 26 years, and has of late been selling knitting machines in that city. He denies the charge of burglary, but there is said to be strong proof against him.

—To rent—a brick house on Bluff street, enquire of Orrin Bates.

Many clergymen who were obliged to withdraw from the pulpit on account of "Clergyman's Sore Throat," have recovered by using Fellows' Syrup Hypophosphites and are preaching again. This preparation seems peculiarly and wonderfully adapted to disease of the breathing organs.

SHORT STORY.

Some six summers since, sagacious Shadrach & Stevens, suddenly suspended several stupendous speculative schemes. Seeing stocks so steadily sinking, scarcely salable, Shadrach swore severely, saying such stagnation, such shocking stringency, staggered his sagacious speculations.

Sarah Stevens, Shadrach's sole surviving, self-satisfied, sedate, spinster sister, sat solemnly stitching some showy slippers; and suddenly she started, screaming—"Stop! such swarming shocks scrupulous sensibilities; suppress such sinful speeches!"

Shadrach stood stone-still some sixty seconds, silently surveying spunky, sharp spoken sister Sarah. Summer showers soon subsided; so sparkling sunshine soon superseded sultry stormful skies. Shadrach and Sarah sensibly seek Wheelock's spacious, superbly supplied store, strolling Main street, seeing storm sign, Shadrach and Sarah entered in.

Smooth-spoken, sensible salesmen, smilingly salute stately Sarah. She selects superb Soup-turettes, Sauters, Supper Sets, Sauce-boats, Salt-trays, Sweepers, Silver-ware, Swinging-baskets, splendid Seramics; Shadrach secures Safety-lamp, servicable Spoons, Shears, Scissors, Sharpening-stones, Superior Statuary [Shadrach sees stately sublimity in statuary], Saltcellars, Syrup-pitchers, Soda-tumblers, Sundry Staple Specialties.

Shadrach's spot specie settlements seem satisfactory. Shadrach stopped swearing, stopped slipping stimulative spirits, sensibly saves surplus specie, Shadrach's spouse serenely shares Shadrach's sumptuous surroundings. Satisfaction seems secured! oct14daw1

More than another that looks neat and cool for Summer wear it is a WHITE VEST!

When you can buy a $3.00 one for $1.50, they look all the more so, because you can have one for week days and one for Sundays, you get two for one, as it were. Three wouldn't cost you very much, and then you could look remarkably fresh. We bought a big lot of White Vests the other day at a very low figure, about 25 cts on a dollar, at least we can't buy any of them in a regular way for less than $2.00, and some of them cost as high as $3.00. As there are too many of them for us to deal out at regular prices this summer, we are offering the whole lot at $1.50 each. All Linen Marseilles and Duck, with pearl buttons, ring fastened, for $1.50. Some of the cunning boys will say they are old style: all the dealers will tell you so. Well, you take one home, compare the style quality and fit, with any $2.50 Vest in the city, and if you don't like the bargain, come right back and get your money. We have them all styles, with and without collars, low cut, high cut and fine cut, but no plug. We also have them for 50c, 75c and $1.00.

IF THERE IS ONE THING

When you can buy a $3.00 one for $1.50, they look all the more so, because you can have one for week days and one for Sundays, you get two for one, as it were. Three wouldn't cost you very much, and then you could look remarkably fresh. We bought a big lot of White Vests the other day at a very low figure, about 25 cts on a dollar, at least we can't buy any of them in a regular way for less than $2.00, and some of them cost as high as $3.00. As there are too many of them for us to deal out at regular prices this summer, we are offering the whole lot at $1.50 each. All Linen Marseilles and Duck, with pearl buttons, ring fastened, for $1.50. Some of the cunning boys will say they are old style: all the dealers will tell you so. Well, you take one home, compare the style quality and fit, with any $2.50 Vest in the city, and if you don't like the bargain, come right back and get your money. We have them all styles, with and without collars, low cut, high cut and fine cut, but no plug. We also have them for 50c, 75c and $1.00.
